BLESSING OF WILLOW BRANCHES

Priest: Let us pray to the Lord.

All: Lord have mercy.

Priest: Lord, our God, seated upon the Cherubim, You exerted Your might and sent Your only begotten Son, our Lord Jesus Christ, to save the world through His cross, burial and resurrection. When He came to Jerusalem for His volunteered passion, the people sitting in the darkness and shadow of death pointed to the Resurrection beforehand by taking branches of trees and palms, symbols of victory. Master, keep and preserve us, too, who in imitation of them on this pre-festal day take branches of trees and palms in our hands and like that crowd and the children cry out “Hosanna!” to you. May we with hymns and spiritual songs come to the life-giving Resurrection on the third day of our Lord Jesus Christ with whom You are blessed together with Your holy, good and life giving Spirit, now and for ever and ever.

All: Amen

Priest: Peace be with all!

All: And with your spirit

Priest: Bow your heads to the Lord.

All: To You, O Lord

Priest: Lord God Almighty, through your just servant Noah you prefigured the Church as an ark, through the dove that brought back an olive branch You foretold the descent of the all holy Spirit and the Hebrew children completed this image when they greeted You with olive and palm branches shouting “Hosanna!” They said: “Hosanna in the highest! Blessed is he who comes in the name of the Lord!”

Lord Jesus Christ our God, You blessed the crowd that greeted you with branches also bless + and sanctify these branches and palms that all who take them may be protected in soul and body, that they may help save us and become a sacramental sign of Your grace, that those who live where they are placed may obtain Your blessings, that all evil power be driven out, that Your right hand

БЛАГОСЛОВЕННЯ ГАЛУЗОК

Священик: Господеві помолімся.

Всі: Господи, помилуй.

Священик: Господи, Боже наш, що сидиш на херувимах! Ти показав свою силу, пославши свого єдинородного Сина, Господа нашого Ісуса Христа, що спас світ своїм хрестом, погребенням і воскресінням. Коли він прийшов на добровільні страсті в Єрусалим, його воскресіння свідчив народ, що сидів у темряві й смертній тіні, взявши знамена перемоги – вітки дерев і пальмові галузки. Збережи та захорони, Владико, і нас що за їхнім прикладом у цей передсвятковий день тримаємо в руках гілки і вітки дерев, щоб як той народ і діти “Осанна” тобі співали, і ми також з піснями і духовними співами дійшли до твого життєдайного після трьох днів воскресіння, в тому ж Христі Ісусі, Господі нашім, з яким і ти благословенний твоїм Духом, нині і повсякчас і на віки вічні.

Всі: Амінь.

Священик: Мир+ Всім!

Всі: І духові твоєму.

Священик: Голови ваші перед Господом схилить.

Всі: Тобі Господи.

Священик: Господи Боже, Вседержителю! Ти за часів праведного і справедливого Ноя показав у ковчезі прообраз Церкви, звівшись прихід Пресвятого Духа через голуба, що приніс оливкову гілку. Цей прообраз здійснили діти юдейські і стрінули тебе з оливковими і пальмовими гілками, віддаючи тобі шану і викрикуючи: Осанна на висотах! Благословенний хто йде в ім'я Господнє!

Тому ти сам, Господи Ісусе Христе, Боже наш, що благословив стрічний народ з квітками, +Благослови і освяти ці вітки й лозу, щоб усі, що їх приймають, з ними прийняли собі захорону для душі і тіла; нехай вони стануть ліком для нашого спасіння і тайною твоєї благодаті. На кожному місці, де будуть вони покладені, ті, що там проживають, хай protect those You redeemed by Your Precious Blood and that all of us may cry out with one voice:

“Hosanna!” Blessed is he who comes to judge in justice with the Father and the Holy Spirit, now and for ever and ever.

All: Amen.

Priest: By the sprinkling of this holy water these willow branches are blessed and sanctified in the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit.

All: Amen.

приймуть твоє благословення. Прогнавши звідтіля всяку ворожу силу, хай твоя десниця прикриє тих, що їх ти викупив своєю цінною кров'ю. Щоб і ми всі разом тобі заспівали:

Осанна, Благословений, хто йде судити справедливо з Отцем і Святим Духом, нині і повсякчас і на віки вічні.

Vci: Амінь.

Священик: Благословляються і освячуються вітки й лоза оця окропленням цієї освяченої води: в ім'я Отця, і Сина, і Святого Духа.

Vci: Амінь.

2019 PASTORAL LETTER
OF THE UKRAINIAN CATHOLIC BISHOPS OF CANADA
ON THE OCCASION OF THE FEAST OF THE RESURRECTION OF OUR LORD

To the Very Reverend Clergy, Monastics and Religious Sisters and Brothers, Seminarians and Laity of the Ukrainian Catholic Church in Canada:

Christ is Risen!

Indeed He is Risen!

Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

One day during this past month of March, many of us opened the newspaper and saw a disturbing headline: “City of Montreal to pull Crucifix from Council Chamber!” The article was distributed by the official agency, The Canadian Press, and as such was seen across Canada. The article explained that the city council had decided that after 80 years, it was no longer desirable to have the crucifix hang in the chambers of the city hall. This, the article pointed out, was part of the movement of secularism in the province of Quebec.

This news item was disturbing on its own, but its impact was particularly felt as it came during the time of the Lenten Fast, when Christians around the world were preparing themselves to mark the crucifixion, death, burial and resurrection of Our Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ. Even though most city halls across Canada do not have a crucifix hanging on the wall, and likely never did, there was a certain comfort for Christians to know that in a province that had such a strong Catholic history, the respect and tradition of this important symbol of faith was still found in the heart of city life.

The crucifix, even in its simplest form, speaks eloquently of the great gift of Jesus, the Son of God for all humanity. It relays this message of salvation when it is worn around the neck. It relays this same message of salvation when it stands on the top of a church dome. It speaks not only of suffering and death, but at the same time of resurrection and eternal life.

In our churches we find a special place for the cross of Christ especially on Good Friday, near the symbolic grave that is set up in the heart of the church. The cross stands over the grave of Jesus and reminds us of his great sufferings.

On Easter Sunday morning we again find the empty cross in the heart of the church, as we celebrate the resurrection of Christ. It tells us not only of the triumph of Jesus over suffering and death, but of his glorious rising from the dead. And most importantly it reminds us of the Good News that we too are challenged to suffer and die with Jesus, so that we too will rise to eternal life after our death and burial.

Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

The decision to have a crucifix in public places of our communities may not be a decision that will be up to us to make. However, each of us can make the decision to have a crucifix hang on the walls of our homes.

When people walk into our houses, what kind of homes do they find? What does the interior appearance of our homes say about the people who live there? They may see how well our homes are decorated and arranged, and compliment us on our taste. Or they may see dusty cupboards and dirty dishes, causing them to think poorly of our personal hygiene. But when people walk into our homes can they tell that they are in the home of a believer in Jesus Christ? Do they feel a sense of religious faith when they enter our homes, by the appearance of a crucifix, or holy icons, or other religious symbols?

As we prepare for these important days of Good Friday, Holy Saturday and Easter Sunday, let us not get caught up only in the decorations associated with these days, that include various figures of the holy cross. Rather, let us make sure we use the holy cross and other religious figures as symbols of our faith in Jesus Christ.

Strengthened by the cross of Jesus and his life-giving resurrection, we send these Paschal greetings to all our faithful in Canada, in Ukraine and throughout the world. We send these Paschal greetings to the sick and the elderly. We send these Paschal greetings to the marginalized and the forgotten. We send these Paschal greetings to those struggling with their faith, those living in doubt and fear. Live in hope, do not be afraid, for Christ is Risen!

Come all you faithful, and let us bow to the holy resurrection of Christ, since through the cross, joy has come to all the world. Ever praising the Lord, let us extol his resurrection, since He, having endured the crucifixion, has destroyed Death by his death! [Paschal Matins]

Christ is Risen!

Indeed He is Risen!

Sincerely Yours in Christ,

24/31 March 2019, Third Sunday of Great Lent: The Veneration of the Cross

Pontifical Collection of Good Friday on April 19, 2019 for the benefit of the Holy Land

The Pontifical Collection for the benefit of the Holy Places is scheduled this year on Good Friday April 19, 2019. Each year on Good Friday, our parish is called to support Christians in the Holy Land. Many Christians in the Holy Land depend on the collection for their lives.

As a Pontifical collection requested by Pope Francis, the annual Good Friday Collection helps to maintain not only the Holy Places above all, but also the pastoral, welfare, educational and social works that the Church carries out to the benefit of the Christian brothers and sisters and the local population.

With gratitude,

Father Gilles Bourdeau, OFM , Commissary of the Holy Land in Canada

As Pope Benedict said: "The Shroud is an icon written in blood; the blood of man who has been whipped, crowned with thorns, crucified and wounded in the right side...the blood speaks of His life. Each trace of blood speaks of love and of life ... we can see it, hear it, in the silence of Easter Saturday."

During Holy Week we reflect on the meaning of the great truth that sheds light on everything we believe in as Christians, the death of Jesus Our Lord and His resurrection from the dead. May your participation in the rites of Holy Week enrich your understanding of this truth and give you the profound joy that such understanding brings.
