Engaged? Planning a wedding in late 2019 or 2020?

The Eparchy of Saskatoon Marriage Preparation Program “Crown them with Honour and Glory” will take place in Saskatoon on Saturday November 30, 2019, and again on Saturday February 29, 2020 from 8 am. to 7 pm. at the Chancery Office, 214 Ave M South.

At this one-day intensive course you will be immersed in the beauty and richness of our unique Byzantine Catholic wedding ceremony and learn within that context some of the keys to a happy lifelong marriage. In addition to the one day session there will also be some preliminary take home components to be completed by the couple prior to the course to enhance learning and growth as a couple.

Please speak immediately with Fr. Kolosnjaji about your plans. For more information and to register for the course email Deborah Larmour at uwitness2family@skeparchy.org.

Please contact the office as soon as possible if you are interested in the November course.

Come and enjoy the time with God and friends! For youth ages 9-13

“Let the children come to me...” Mark 10, 14

We invite youth to join St. George's new creative and exciting program for young people 9-13 years old starting this October. We are pleased to offer young people of this age various kinds of activities and crafts this school year: chotky/rosary making, icon painting, embroidering, Ukrainian doll making, egg painting, caroling, baking/cooking, sports activities, movie watching, Ukrainian dancing, games, etc. All the activities aim to be catechetically oriented and promote the spiritual and comprehensive development of your child in the context of Ukrainian culture and Byzantine Rite. The meetings with the youth are planned to be once a week. The day and the time of the meetings will be decided based on the needs of the parents. Participation is free but donations are welcomed.

To register emailing or texting Viktoriia Marko at 306-914-0355/

Two real life Good Samaritan stories

On April 18, 2010, Guatemalan immigrant Hugo Alfredo Tale-Yax came to the aid of a woman being threatened by a man wielding a knife. Tale-Yax struggled with the attacker, but was eventually stabbed and left to die on a Jamaica, Queens (NY) street. The woman and the attacker fled in different directions while he lay bleeding. Video surveillance filmed portions of the attack and its disgusting aftermath.

Cameras showed that one man photographed Tale-Yax with a cell phone. Eighteen others saw or walked right past him. All refused to render aid or contact authorities. The closest anyone came to helping was a man who shook the body vigorously, but walked away after seeing the pool of blood. Firefighters arrived fifteen minutes later, but by then it was too late.

Police are still looking for the suspect.

In 2007, 50 year old construction worker Wesley Autrey was taking his two daughters to school on the subway. While waiting for the train, fellow passenger Cameron Hollopeter had a seizure and fell off the platform, landing between the two rails. With the train arriving in mere seconds, Autrey jumped from the platform and pushed the young man as deep into the ground as he could go. The incoming train rolled over both men, passing within inches of their heads.

When the onlookers stopped screaming, Autrey exhorted them to 'tell the girls their father is okay'. The transit authority then arrived, cut the power, and extricated the lucky pair. Autrey refused medical treatment, and calmly took his kids to school. His only regret was that his hat got greasy.
