Jesus says, I am the bread of life. Whoever comes to me will never be hungry, and whoever believes in me will never be thirsty. "He says this to people for whom bread is the most basic of foods. It is not a luxury item, but a necessary part of daily life. The context of this saying is the feeding of the five thousand. Jesus has just fed a crowd with bread and fish, and they now come looking for more bread. The bread that Jesus gave them brought life for their bodies, and now Jesus says that he himself is the bread that brings life in a fuller sense. In John's Gospel, true life is lived in relationship with God. To be truly alive is to be in relationship with the God who gives life. Jesus brings people into relationship with God by giving of himself, and the ultimate gift will be the gift of his own life through crucifixion. This is one of the seven "I am" sayings in John's Gospel. Since the expression "I am" recalls the name of God, who is the "I Am" (Exodus 3:14), these sayings emphasize that Jesus is God's Word in the flesh.

SAINTS QUOTES ON THE HOLY COMMUNION

Every morning during meditation, I prepare myself for the whole day's struggle. Holy Communion assures me that I will win the victory; and so it is. I fear the day when I do not receive Holy Communion. This bread of the Strong gives me all the strength I need to carry on my mission and the courage to do whatever the Lord asks of me. The courage and strength that are in me are not of me, but of Him who lives in me - it is the Eucharist.

--St. Faustina

"If angels could be jealous of men, they would be so for one reason: Holy Communion."

"You come to me and unite Yourself intimately to me under the form of nourishment. Your Blood now runs in mine, Your Soul, Incarnate God, compenetrates mine, giving courage and support. What miracles! Who would have ever imagined such!"

--St. Maximilian Kolbe

"When you have received Him, stir up your heart to do Him homage; speak to Him about your spiritual life, gazing upon Him in your soul where He is present for your happiness; welcome Him as warmly as possible, and behave outwardly in such a way that your actions may give proof to all of His Presence."

--St. Francis de Sales

"The Blessed Sacrament is indeed the stimulus for us all, for me as it should be for you, to forsake all worldly ambitions. Without the constant presence of our Divine Master upon the altar in my poor chapels, I never could have persevered casting my lot with the lepers of Molokai; the foreseen consequence of which begins now to appear on my skin, and is felt throughout the body. Holy Communion being the daily bread of a priest, I feel myself happy, well pleased, and resigned in the rather exceptional circumstances in which it has pleased Divine Providence to put me."

--Blessed Fr. Damien, Apostle of the Lepers
