Christmas Thank You

The Social Justice Committee would like to extend their thanks to the parish for their generous contributions to the gift drive for Our Lady of Guadalupe Parish! St. George's contributed over 80 individual presents, as well as several hundred dollars to help pay for the children's Christmas party at St. Mary's Parish Hall. With some help from St. Paul's Roman Catholic Co-Cathedral, we will be able to ensure that every child of the Guadalupe community received a Christmas present! Special thanks to the Ukrainian Brotherhood for offering us financial assistance, as well as to the UCWLC for contributing candy and oranges for the Christmas party.

Financial Assistance for Newcomer Ukrainians

Because of generous contributions from St. George's Cathedral parishioners, parish council is pleased to offer funding to help newcomer Ukrainians settle in Saskatoon. Newcomer Ukrainians who have made a spiritual home at St. George's Cathedral can apply for funds in order to cover things such as medical costs not covered by Saskatchewan Health Care, incidental costs associated with settling in Saskatoon (e.g., application fees, passport photos), and in certain circumstances, reimbursement for emergency costs. Those interested in applying for funds can contact Fr. Janko Kolosnjaji to learn more.
